

Workshop on Markets, Governance and Human Development

Jointly organised by Developmental Studies Association (DSA) and
Robinson College, University of Cambridge, UK

Cambridge, 6-7 July 2009

Venue: Robinson College, Junior Common Room

PROGRAMME

MONDAY 6 July

10:00-11:00	Welcome with Coffee and Registration
11:00-11:30	Keynote Lecture: Marc Fleurbaey (CNRS, CERSES) "Forced Trades in Free Markets"
11:30-12:00	Discussion
12:00-12:15	Coffee Break
12:15-13:15	Susan Johnson (Bath University): "Polanyi and the instituted processes of markets: introducing a wellbeing perspective" Jean-Luc Dubois and François-Régis Mahieu (IRD, C3ED, University de Versailles): "Ruling markets through the ethics of solidarity economy: to monitor the emergence of crises."
13:15-14:45	Lunch
14:45-15:45	Nir Eyal (Department of Global Health and Social Medicine, Harvard Medical School): "Medical tourism: from brain drain to brain gain" Tor Otterholt (University of Oslo): "Should the State Cultivate Cheaper Tastes?"
15:45-16:00	Coffee Break
16:00-17:00	Jorge Buzaglo (Sweden): "Climate change, global ethics and the market" Paul Trawick (Cranfield University): The Global Economy as a Closed System: On the Relationship between Worldview, Over-consumption and the Illusion of Creating Wealth
17:00-17:15	Coffee Break
17:15-17:45	Keynote Lecture: Leif Wenar (Kings College London) "Property Rights and Resource Curse"
17:45-18:15	Discussion
19:00 (for 19:30)	Conference Dinner (Garden Room)

TUESDAY 7 July
08:00-09:00	Breakfast (Garden Restaurant)
09:30-10:00	Keynote Lecture: Alan Kirman (GREQAM, Université Paul Cezanne (Aix-Marseille), EHESS, IUF) "Empathy and Economics: Why do we care about the welfare of others?"
10:00-10:30	Discussion
10:30-10:45	Coffee Break
10:45-11:45	Araddhya Mehta (Development Studies, University of Oxford): "Integrated approach to Understanding Governance and Accountability: The role of the Right to Food movement in India and local community dynamics in strengthening governance and accountability" Johan F.M. Swinnen and Anneleen Vandeplass (University of Leuven): "Quality and Efficiency Premia: the Impact of Development on Contracting and Rent Distribution in Food Value Chains"
11:45-12:00	Coffee Break
12:00-13:00	Joshy Easaw (Bath University) and Antonio Savoia (University of Reading): "Inequality in developing economies" P. B. Anand (University of Bradford): "To EITI or Not EITI? Examining governance issues in resource rich countries from a human development perspective"
13:00-14:30	Lunch
14:30-15:30	Mariusz J. Golecki (Cambridge University and University of Łódź): "Is the King naked? Judicial Governance as a Response to market and state failures" Vinca Bigo (Cambridge University): "A mindful governance"
15:30-15:45	Coffee Break
15:45-16:45	Des Gasper (Institute of Social Studies, The Hague) "Capitalism and Human Flourishing: The strange story of the bias to activity and the downgrading of work" Mark Hayes (Homerton College, Cambridge): "Human development and the reform of corporate governance: evidence from the case of Shared Interest"
16:45-17:00	Coffee Break
17:00-17:30	Keynote Lecture: Tim Jackson (University of Surrey) "Governance for Prosperity"
17:30-18:00	Discussion
18:00	Conclusion
19:00	Dinner (Garden Restaurant)

For further information, please contact P.B. Anand at p.b.anand@bradford.ac.uk, Des Gasper at gasper@iss.nl or Miriam Teschl at mt367@cam.ac.uk