DON'T EVER CHANGE
A group of school friends reunite for fond reminiscences, only to rekindle old rivalries, leaving them wondering how much they've really changed. An original musical written by Elspeth Collard and Rebecca Rebis about memories, heartbreak and, above all, friendship, coming to Brickhouse following a successful run at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival in August.

7:00pm, Sat 7th - Sun 8th October 2017

COPENHAGEN
"Everyone understands uncertainty. Or thinks he does. No-one understands my trip to Copenhagen." September 1941. Nazi occupied Denmark. Two friends meet. One is a German nuclear physicist; the other, a Danish Jew, was once his colleague and mentor. Years later, in death, they meet again in an attempt to resolve the uncertainty.

7:30pm, Sun 5th - Tue 7th November 2017

A VERY BREXIT MUSICAL
Follow the story of David Dameron's ill-fated decision to hold a referendum in this original musical comedy. Patriotic anthems and political satire shape the touching interactions of our torn protagonist, writing for the Maley Dail just as the biggest upset in British politics is about to occur.
An original musical written by Robinson students Molly Cook and Anthony Gray.

7:45pm, Thu 9th - Sat 11th November 2017
2:30pm, Sat 11th November 2017

AMERICAN IDIOT
The Tony Award-winning hit rock musical 'American Idiot', which includes every song from Green Day's 'American Idiot' album as well as several songs from the following release '21st Century Breakdown', is coming to Brickhouse! This is a hard-hitting show about identity and individualism, and above all, finding something to believe in.
