ROBINSON COLLEGE CAMBRIDGE
THE HENSLOW RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP 2019

Further particulars for candidates

The following information about the benefits and responsibilities of Research Fellowships at Robinson College may be helpful for you.

Research Fellows are entitled to single accommodation in the College, subject to availability. There is a modest monthly service charge, currently £160. All meals taken by Fellows and Research Fellows are free of charge. Grants of up to £700 are available annually for academic expenses, and there is financial assistance for running small conferences/symposia in the College up to a maximum of £3000 per annum. There is also an allowance of up to £350 towards the purchase of a computer. There are also a number of small allowances (up to £100) for entertainment, stationery and so forth.

All Fellows, including Research Fellows, are voting members of the College’s Governing Body. All are expected to attend meetings of the Governing Body. The Research Fellow would have the full rights of Fellowship within the College. He or she might also be invited to become a member of other College committees, in due course, and would be expected to participate in the life of this academic community, for instance, mentoring graduate students, or participating in research seminars for our graduate students. The Research Fellow would be expected to pursue full-time research, but he or she would be welcome to undertake supervisions (small-group teaching) for the College, up to a maximum of 6 hours per week. Supervisions would attract separate payment at the agreed intercollegiate hourly rate.

Churchill College, Murray Edwards College, Robinson College, St Edmund’s College and Trinity Hall operate a Joint Application Scheme for Early Career Research Fellowships.

Applications will be considered by all Colleges offering Fellowships in the relevant subject. A total of eight Fellowships are offered but candidates are advised that competition is likely to be intense; last year over 1000 applications were received.

Candidates are warned that they are responsible for checking their eligibility to take up the post under UK immigration rules.

Full information regarding the Fellowships on offer, further particulars and registration details will be available at the Joint Application Scheme website w/c 8 October 2019:
